

The petition for Shaker Aamer's; crossed the 100,000 milestone on 12th April. When the petition closed on 20th April 2013, 117,371 people had signed.

We are indebted to all those who signed and whose efforts helped us reach the target on time.

A debate took place on the e-petition at Westminster Hall on Wednesday 24th April.

A new petition by Amnesty International was launched in January 2015, calling on President Obama and the prime minister, David Cameron, to:

• Secure the release of Shaker Aamer and return him to the UK without delay, if he is not to be charged and brought to fair trial
• Give Shaker Aamer immediate and regular access to independent medical assessments and care
• Immediately investigate all allegations that Shaker Aamer has been subjected to torture and other ill-treatment and ensure that anyone found responsible is brought to justice
